

Miami Dade College
FSE 2100L Embalming I Lab

Course Description: This course is a hands-on experience in the preparation room. Students will learn how to disinfect, preserve and restore the remains for viewing and shipping purposes
2 Credits

Corequisites: FSE 2100

Competency 1: The student will set facial features by:

- a. closing the eyes using eyecaps, cotton, or paper.
- b. closing the mouth using injector needles, musculature or mandibular suture.

Competency 2: The student will disinfect, preserve and restore the remains by:

- a. raising the appropriate vessels.
- b. mixing the proper solution for the optimum embalming results.

Competency 3: The student will embalm difficult cases by:

- a. applying surface packs to the affected areas.
- b. Hypoing the tissue in order to preserve the affected areas that need treatment.

