

Miami Dade College
FSE 2200 Funeral Home Accounting

Course Description: This course is an introduction to basic principles of accounting theory. The subject covers financial statements and their analysis, worksheets, journaling, receivables, payables, deferrals and accruals.

3 Credits

Prerequisites and Corequisites: None

Course Competencies:

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| Competency 1: | The student will describe the basic principles of accounting by: <ol style="list-style-type: none">a. listing the differences between bookkeeping and accounting.b. defining the accounting principles and describing how they are incorporated into the funeral home setting. |
| Competency 2: | The student will describe the importance of a knowledge of accounting as an individual, as an employee and as a future manager or employer by: <ol style="list-style-type: none">a. completing a journal and a ledger.b. Listing the items that fall under the accounting cycle. |