

Miami-Dade Community College
OST2362L - Database Applications for Business Lab (PROPOSED)

Catalog Description:

The Database Applications for Business Lab is designed to provide practice in applying concepts, features, and commands of a database for business and office administration applications.

1 Credit

Corequisite: OST2362

Lab Competencies:

Competency 1:     The student will practice and demonstrate database features and functions for office and business applications by:

- a. Creating a customized database.
- b. Modifying the structure of an existing database.
- c. Retrieving information from a database.
- d. Integrating database applications with other applications.