

Course Competency

AMH 2097 RACE, NATIONALITY AND ETHNICITY IN U.S. HISTORY

Course Description

This course surveys the development and history of ideas associated with race and ethnicity through the lens of United States history from the nineteenth century to the twentieth century. During this period, the conflict, debate, legal cases, and legal decisions surrounding these issues formed the foundation of racial and ethnic system that marginalized minority groups, limiting their ability to enjoy equality before the law.

Course Competency	Learning Outcomes
Competency 1:Competency 1: Students will be able to identify key moments, themes, and individuals in the racial and ethnic history of the United States by:	1. Cultural / Global Perspective
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describing how the institution of slavery, the slave experience and abolition shaped the legal, social, and political landscape of the US. 2. Identifying how the Reconstruction and Jim Crow Eras shaped the African American Civil Rights Movement of the 20th century. 3. Identifying different waves in US immigration, corresponding push and pull factors, as well as varying experiences and challenges that different immigrant groups faced within the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.
Competency 2:Competency 2: Students will be able to identify factors of race, class, gender, and ethnicity in shaping in the racial and ethnic history of the United States by:	1. Cultural / Global Perspective
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analyzing different approaches to inclusion as well as how the constitutional and legal system worked both to limit and expand the rights of minority groups. 2. Discussing how the African American

Civil Rights movement sparked further social justice movements. 3. Exploring intersectionality and how it shaped the dialogue surrounding equality and inclusion.
Competency 3:Competency 3: Students will be able to analyze and synthesize knowledge about cultural variation within and/or between American cultures by:	1. Cultural / Global Perspective
Competency 4:Analyzing the intra cultural affairs, relations, and conflicts between immigrant groups and its impact on American political, social and economic institutions.
Competency 5:Exploring the development of political and racial ideas among all racial and ethnic groups in the United States.

Updated: SPRING TERM 2022