Course Competency

ENL 2022 ENGLISH LITERATURE 2

Course Description

A survey of major British writers from the 18th century through the contemporary period. Required of English majors. Prerequisites: ENC 1101, 1102. (3 hr. lecture)

| Course Competency | Learning Outcomes |
|---|---|
| Competency 1: apply an understanding of literary genres by: | 1. Communication2. Aesthetic / Creative Activities3. Cultural / Global Perspective4. Critical thinking |
| 1. understanding literary terms2. evaluating terms and particular elements of specific literary genres3. evaluating the aesthetic qualities of assigned material | |
| Competency 2: analyze selected readings by: | 1. Communication2. Critical thinking3. Aesthetic / Creative Activities4. Cultural / Global Perspective |
| 1. supporting and discussing relevant themes within the literature2. analyzing and discussing particular conflicts, ideas, and experiences preent in the literary works3. evaluating the literary work from a critical perspective | |
| Competency 3: value an appreciation for the importance of literature in culture by: | 1. Communication2. Critical thinking3. Cultural / Global Perspective4. Aesthetic / Creative Activities |

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. summarizing key writers and literary works from the 18th century to the contemporary period2. summarizing literary movements from the 18th century to the contemporary period3. analyzing the literary works' societal and historical contexts | |
| Competency 4:create artifacts that demonstrate proficiency in written communication by: | 1. Communication2. Information Literacy3. Critical thinking |
| 1. creating, developing, organizing, and presenting ideas effectively2. supporting and including communication to purpose, audience, and occasion3. appying the conventions of standard American English4. applying correct use of citing primary and secondary sources5. analyzing and evaluating the text | |

Updated: FALL TERM 2022