

Course Description

MUN1120 | Concert Band | 1.00 – 3.00 credits

The opportunity for performing concert band literature through participation in the College Band. Emphasis is on music originally composed for bands. It may be repeated for credit.

Course Competencies

Competency 1:

The student will develop the ability to play repertoire in an ensemble setting through practice and performance by:

- Studying and playing repertoire for a combination of instruments.
- Practicing in an ensemble setting to blend tones with other musicians.
- Developing collaborative music skills.
- Practicing within an ensemble setting to demonstrate proficiency in rehearsal and performance etiquette.

Learning Outcomes

- Communication
- Creative Thinking
- Aesthetic /Creative Activities

Competency 2:

The student will develop an understanding of historical musical styles through listening, guided rehearsals, and individual practice by:

- Practicing repertoire from different musical eras within an ensemble.
- Following a conductor or leader in rehearsal and performance.
- Practice individual part in preparation for group rehearsals.

Learning Outcomes

- Communication
- Creative Thinking
- Aesthetic /Creative Activities

Competency 3:

The student will develop their aural, rhythmic skills, and performance skills, to enhance overall musicianship by:

- Practicing regularly within an ensemble to coordinate rhythmic and aural skills in rehearsals and performance settings.
- Experiencing guided rehearsals that cover technical and musical progress, including pitch, rhythm, and volume control.

Learning Outcomes

- Communication
- Creative Thinking
- Aesthetic/Creative Activities