

MIAMI DADE COLLEGE
CENTER FOR COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT
PARENTAL CONSENT FORM
SERVICE-LEARNING

Your son/daughter _____ (name and student #) is currently enrolled in _____ (course name and #). This course includes a service-learning option, which involves volunteering at a non-profit organization during the term. The purpose of the volunteer service experience is to enhance and enrich learning of course material while providing much needed support for our community's efforts to meet its needs.

Your son/daughter has committed to providing ___ hours of service to:

---

Name of Placement	Address	Phone
-------------------	---------	-------

This placement is on the college's list of approved student volunteer placements. (Yes / No)

Scheduling of the service hours is done by the student and the community partner volunteer supervisor who will be responsible for supervising all on site activities. Transportation to and from the service site is the responsibility of the student.

Since your son/daughter is not yet eighteen years of age, parental consent for your child's participation in this volunteer service is required. As the student's parent or legal guardian, please sign below indicating your consent, and return this form to the course professor before your child begins his/her volunteer placement.

If you have any questions about the volunteer service placement, call the Center for Community Involvement at (305) 237-0859. Questions about the course should be directed to the student's professor.
