Kendall Campus Schools of Crafts Scholarship

This merit-based scholarship will provide recipients an opportunity to attend a two-week long workshop at either the Penland School of Crafts in North Carolina or the Haystack Mountain School of Crafts in Maine. The scholarship is for registration fees, housing, transportation, meals, and supplies. The number of awarded recipients will be based on availability of funds.

Penland is an international center for craft education dedicated to helping people live creative lives. Located in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina, Penland offers workshops in books & paper, clay, painting, drawing, glass, iron, metals, photography, printmaking and letterpress, textiles, and wood. The school also offers artists' residencies. Students can select any available Penland two-week summer workshop that is currently open. For more information about the Penland School of Crafts please visit: <http://www.penland.org>.

Haystack Mountain School of Crafts is an international craft school located on the Atlantic Ocean in Deer Isle, Maine. The school offers intensive studio-based workshops in a variety of craft media including clay, glass, metals, paper, blacksmithing, weaving, woodworking and more. Programs range from short workshops to two-week sessions and anyone may participate, from beginners to advanced professionals. For more information about the Haystack School of Crafts visit: www.haystack-mtn.org.
