

Miami Dade College
SPN 2341 – Spanish for Native Speakers II

Course Description: A continuation of SPN 2340. For students wishing to attain greater proficiency in written formal Spanish. Strongly recommended for Spanish majors. Conducted entirely in Spanish.

3 credits

Prerequisite: SPN 2340 or equivalent.

Course Competencies:

Competency 1: The student will demonstrate an application of knowledge of written accent rules by using such rules to accent Spanish words when writing multi-paragraph essays.

Competency 2: The student will demonstrate an application of knowledge of written punctuation rules by using them when writing multi-paragraph essays in Spanish.

Competency 3: The student will recognize and produce the type of essay each Spanish writing task requires (including some discipline specific writing tasks as well as traditional Spanish composition assignments).

Competency 4: The student will exhibit increased fluency in Spanish writing and will plan and develop multi-paragraph essays (including analysis, synthesis, evaluation, etc.) using a variety of sentence structures and vocabulary, exhibiting clarity, coherence and substance, and applying standard Spanish writing conventions.

Competency 5: The student will proofread and edit written Spanish work attending to grammar, mechanics, clarity, coherence, substance, audience, and purpose.

Competency 6: The student will gather information and integrate sources in written Spanish work when appropriate.

Competency 7: The student will use reference tools to edit Spanish writing and give credit to sources by using basic forms of citation.

Competency 8: The student will execute other academic Spanish writing tasks including: essay responses to test questions calling for higher order thinking skills, written responses to reading selections, summaries, and reaction papers (reflection of personal experiences as they relate to academic topics).

Competency 9: The student will demonstrate the ability to synthesize knowledge of Spanish by writing an essay on an assigned topic or writing a free composition in Spanish.