

Remembering September 11

Here is a selection of annotated websites to learn more about this celebration.

| | |
|---|---|
|  | September 11 News: This archive collects written and graphic information from various credible sources about 09/11/2001. It is divided in 2 archives: news about the September 11 attack and news on the aftermath and its consequences. |
|  | The September 11 Digital Archive uses electronic media to collect, preserve, and present the history of the September 11, 2001 attacks in New York, Virginia, and Pennsylvania and the public responses to them. Includes still pics, videos, audios, stories, etc. |
|  | The National Security Archive from George Washington University has compiled a great deal of primary sources on the war of terrorism through their September 11 Sourcebook. |
|  | September 11, 2001: Victims. This site is designed with the victims in mind. Find a list of all victims as well as pictures, chat rooms, and ways of helping the victims' families. |
|  | Time Magazine – September 11: A Nation Remembers is a collection of pictures, essays, news and other important items related to the attack and its aftermath. |
|  | Families of September 11, Inc. (FOS11) is an independent nonpartisan organization founded by families of those who died in the September 11 terrorist attacks. They promote the interests of the victims' families and support public policies that improve the prevention of and response to terrorism. |

Always remember that your InterAmerican Campus Library is the best place to obtain information on the month's celebrations. Ask a librarian for assistance by contacting us at ilibrary@mdc.edu or 305-237-6236