

Women's History Month

2010 Calendar

photo by: Vicky D'Incecco

Writing Women Back Into History

March 1-31

ART DISPLAYS

Gender & Vision: Art by Women and About Women

BOOK DISPLAYS

About Women and Women's History
Library, Building 2
Second Floor

Wednesday, March 3

Opening Ceremony

Women Scientists: A celebration of the past and a report on the present

Presenter: Dr. Georgina Hart,
Miami Dade College, Chemistry
Faculty at Kendall Campus
Noon - 1:00 p.m.
Conference Center, Room K 413

Wednesday, March 10

Role of Women in Interior Design

Historically, women have played a role in interior design; this presentation will review their role in the interior design industry.

Presenter: Professor Janine King, Chair of the Florida International University Interior Design Program.
Noon - 1:00 p.m.
Conference Center, Room K 413

Wednesday, March 17

Health Information Fair

Panel Discussion - Surviving a Life Threatening Disease / Coping with Cancer

Presenters: Dr. Nicholas Tranakas,
Oncologist/Surgeon

Ms. Cindy Papale Hammontree, author of: Empty Cup Runneth Over

Mrs. Astrid Culver, Miami Dade College

Alumni and Cancer Survivor

Paula Holland De Long, Cancer Survivor,
"What is Next for My Life"

Individuals who have survived a life threatening disease will discuss their perspectives, how they coped with cancer and life after it.

There will be a Pink Ribbon Recognition Presentation
Noon - 1:00 p.m.

Conference Center, Room K 413

Wednesday, March 24

Women in Business

In today's world, women are a fixed part of business.

This presentation will discuss the historical role of women in business and the wave for the future.

Lecture by Jennifer Laudermilch,
Director at Price Waterhouse
Noon - 1:00 p.m.

Room 2105

Thursday, March 25

Closing Ceremony

Momentum Dance Company.

The work of American Dance

Pioneer - Doris Humphrey will be discussed as well as showcase her work with a performance.

Presenter: Delma Iles, Miami Dade College Adjunct Faculty - Barbie Freeman, Dancer

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

McCarthy Theater,
Room 6120