

Night Driving

Why are you here
When no one else is?
Why do you pretend to see the unseen?
Why do you ask so many stupid questions?

Ha ha ha
You make me laugh so much
I grab my arms and rip them off
The last arm comes off with help
From my teeth
And no
You idiot
I'm not angry.

I felled the wall and broke the latch
The door it cracked upon my back
And the world blackened
When I felled the central building
With fire
I want to burn down your house
Because that's what I'm talking about.

I grab my legs carefully and roll them up
Hop in the car, put them in the trunk
And turn on my pale cigarette.
Steering with my chin,
It's the end of the revolution
The bad guys are fighting back
When before we were content to only rule
The bad guys are coming strong
So get yourself back to school
And mind your fucking manners when I pass.
