INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION ABROAD • PLEDGE OF GOOD BEHAVIOR

As a condition for participation in the _____ program, students must obey all local laws and rules as well as respect local customs. The College reserves the right to withdraw any student for reasons of offensive personal behavior or inadequate contribution to the academic and educational purposes of this program.

INVIOLEABLE RULES

1. Students shall attend all briefing sessions, and lectures and participate in all program related excursions.
2. Misbehavior or inappropriate or offensive conduct will result in dismissal from the program and return to Miami at student's own expense.
3. Drugs, other than those medically prescribed, are not tolerated, even if tolerated and/or condoned locally. Any student dependent on illegal drugs should not participate in this program. Students found to be using illegal drugs will be expelled and returned to Miami at their own expense.
4. Breaches of local law will be reported to the requisite law enforcement agency of that country.
5. Accommodations provided, whether hotel or student residence, are not for partying. College regulations prohibit the consumption of alcoholic beverages at College functions or in College-sponsored programs. No alcoholic beverages are permitted in hotel or other accommodations provided.

The reputation of the _____ of Miami Dade College, your country, and yourself is reflected in your personal behavior. You represent your College, your home country, and your accompanying professors and program leaders. You must conduct yourself accordingly – with patience, respect for your hosts, and a sense of personal dignity. The _____ is ranked among the most prestigious international study centers in the world, and you are their guest.

I, _____, have read the above statements, and I agree to abide by them to the best of my ability during my participation in the Miami Dade College _____ International Education Abroad program. I understand the principles set forth above, and that violation of any of them may result in my expulsion from participation in the program, as indicated.
