COURSE DESCRIPTION:  A mandatory course for the Florida real estate salesperson, broker, or broker-salesperson whose license has expired. Students who register for this course actually will attend a real estate salesperson license examination preparation course. They must attend the first class, at which time the instructor will inform them of the classes they must attend. (For example, classes 1-4, 6, 16-19) At the end of the course, they will take a 25-question quiz, which they must pass with a 70% or better score.

COURSE HOURS:  28

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:  If the student misses any class hours, the student must register and pay for the course again. This is a regulation of FREC, not Miami-Dade Community College.

FINAL EXAMINATION:  The 25-question examination is given on the last day of the course. Students must pass this exam with a 70% or better. Exam results are mailed to FREC and the student. This then qualifies the student to apply for the State of Florida examination.
