POLICY TITLE: Student Intellectual Property

LEGAL AUTHORITY: FLORIDA STATUTE 1001.65

DATE OF LAST REVIEW: 6/21/2005, 6/19/2007, 7/21/2009, 7/19/2011, 7/16/2013 and 9/17/2024

DATE OF BOARD ACTION: 4/13/2004 and 9/17/2024

For purposes of this Policy, a student is any person enrolled in any course at the College. When a student independently creates intellectual property (defined below) without any material contribution from any other person, the student creator owns all rights to this intellectual property and the College has no rights to such intellectual property. Further, neither the College nor any employee of the College, including faculty members, has the right to use the intellectual property described in this Policy, without receiving written authorization from the student that independently created the intellectual property.

"Intellectual property" means any and all copyrightable material (including, but not limited to, all derivative works, updates and modifications), inventions, (whether patented or not) tangible research materials, trademarks, trade names, and trade secrets, as these terms are defined under applicable Federal, state, and local laws. Intellectual property shall include but not be limited to, educational materials, books, textbooks, articles, dramatic and musical compositions, poetry, fictional and non-fictional narratives, analyses (e.g., scientific, logical, opinion or criticism), works of art and design, photographs, films, video and audio recordings, computer software, web based materials, architectural and engineering drawings, choreography, works (whether copyrightable or not), publications, compositions, discoveries, and processes.
