No animals may be brought onto College property except for animals that provide assistance to persons with a disability, or in conjunction with a program approved by the College. Animals found to cause spread of bacterial infections, causing or exacerbating allergic reactions, or causing disruption to educational activities shall be immediately removed.