

DAP news & events

A Bulletin of the Department of Arts and Philosophy / Wolfson Campus

October 2009

Our Department hosts Mexican muralist Diego Rosales. Maestro Rosales will create a 400-square-foot mural at the College's Wolfson Campus. Titled Universal Man, it will represent the transition of mankind from ancient to modern times.
Building 3, Fourth floor
From September 28 to December 8, 2009

Professor Claudia Scalise will exhibit her work in There Goes the Neighborhood
Reception: Wednesday, October 14, 2009 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
Miami Beach Regional
227 22nd St. 305.535.4219

Miami artists Mary Malm, Brian Reedy, Tom Virgin and Claudia Scalise collaborate on this exhibition that explores the idea of "the neighborhood" from divergent perspectives.

Is Miami Hispanic?

Special Event for Hispanic Heritage Month

Interdisciplinary Panel on Politics, Culture, the Arts and Architecture

Thursday, October 15 6:30 - 9:30 pm

Room 2106

Professor Alfredo Triff, Moderator

Student Recitals

Tuesday, October 20 at 5:40 p.m.

Friday, October 23 at 11:00 a.m.

Room 3419

Wolfson Latin Jazz Big Band

Tuesday, October 27

7:40 p.m.

Chapman Conference Center, 3210

Jazz at Wolfson Presents

Carlos Averhoff, sax

Wednesday, October 28

Noon

Chapman Conference Center, room 3210

Wolfson Faculty Art Exhibition at Centre Gallery

Wednesday, October 7, 2009

12 noon