

DAP news & events

A Bulletin of the Department of Arts and Philosophy / Wolfson Campus

April 2011

Monday, April 4 in room 3419.

10 am: New World Symphony – a string quartet from the symphony will present Debussy's string quartet. This is an opportunity for students to hear a semi-professional level string quartet live, and to ask questions.

12 noon: Anna Litvinenko, cellist, with pianist Sahily Canovas. Ms. Litvinenko is a student at New World School of the Arts and is one of four Americans to win a place in the International Tchaikovsky Cello Competition this June in Moscow.

Jazz at Wolfson Presents

Martin Bejerano, pianist

Wednesday, April 6, 2011

Auditorium, (Room 1261)

Noon

Free and open to the public.

The Two Fridas

A Collaborative Exhibition by Art Appreciation Students

at Wolfson Campus

Wolfson Campus Library

March 7th - April 5th, 2011

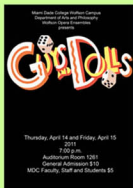

The Humanities Film Series at Noon:

Hatred and Hunger

Wednesday, April 13, 2011

War Without End

Wednesday, April 30, 2011

The Department of Arts and Philosophy

Room 1676

Wolfson Opera Ensembles

presents

Guys and Dolls

A Musical Production with music and lyrics by Frank

Loesser and book by Jo Sweeling and Abe Burrows

under direction of Amy Ibberson and Alan Ngim

Choreography by Lee Pugh

April 14 & 15, 2011 7 p.m.

Auditorium

General Admission $10

MDC Faculty, Staff and Students $5

Joseph Tamargo's student, Luis Castaneda was one of the five selected for nationals from the League of Innovation exhibition with this "Untitled" photography.

Upcoming Art Events

Annual Student Art Show

Opening April 21st, 2011 Centre Gallery 10:00am

Frances Wolfson Art Scholarship Luncheon in room 6100, from 12 to 2p.m. on April 28.