Guided Reflection Questions

- What were you expecting from the service-learning experience before you started?
- Why were you expecting this?
- Why did you choose this particular agency?
- What happened at the service site?
- Did what happened during service-learning reflect your expectations, or was it totally different? Why?
- Were there any interesting or special people that you met? What made these people stand out?
- Were there any special events or did some unusual or interesting things happen?
- Did you learn anything about a different group in society (i.e. different age, profession, ethnic, racial or socio-economic group)? What did you learn?
- What business/life skills have you learned?
- What is the most valuable experience you acquired?
- What are you learning in (Psychology) that you can link to your service-learning experience?
- What did this experience teach you about community involvement, citizenship, and civic responsibility?
- How did this service-learning experience relate to your personal, professional, or career goals?
- What impact did the experience have on your everyday life?
- Write down three things you learned.
- How can you use what you’ve learned?
- What did you learn that was directly related to your course objectives?