Competency 4: The student will understand and apply theories and research on second language acquisition and development to support ELLs’ learning by:

1. Demonstrating understanding of current and past theories and research in second language acquisition and bilingualism as applied to ELLs from diverse backgrounds and at varying English proficiency levels.
2. Recognizing the importance of ELLs’ home languages and language varieties, and build on these skills as a foundation for learning English.
3. Applying knowledge of sociocultural, sociopolitical, and psychological variables to facilitate ELLs’ learning of English.
4. Applying knowledge of the role of individual learner variables in the process of learning English as a second language.

Competency 5: The student will demonstrate an understanding of the components of literacy, and understand and apply theories of second language literacy development to support ELLs’ learning by:

1. Applying current theories of second language reading and writing development for ELLs from diverse backgrounds and at varying English proficiency levels.
2. Demonstrating understanding of similarities and differences between L1 and L2 literacy development.
3. Demonstrating understanding of how L1 literacy influences L2 literacy development and apply this to support ELLs’ learning.
4. Applying knowledge of sociocultural, sociopolitical, and psychological variables to facilitate ELLs’ L2 literacy development in English.
5. Applying knowledge of how principles of phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and discourse affect L2 reading and writing development.

Competency 6: The student will appropriately use and interpret a variety of language proficiency assessment instruments to meet district, state, and federal guidelines, to inform their instruction as well as, understand their uses for identification, placement, and demonstration of language growth of ELLs from diverse backgrounds.
