

Course Description

FIL2945 | Film Internship | 3.00 credits

Students will learn to apply the various skills gained throughout the program in a semester long immersion at an established film entertainment company. Prerequisite: FIL2480C

Course Competencies:

Competency 1: The student will acquire the skills necessary for a successful job interview by:

1. Preparing an effective and accurate film production resume
2. Applying personal presentation strategies
3. Interviewing for various film production internship positions

Competency 2: The student will follow industry standard protocol in the workplace by:

1. Following film industry standard protocol in the workplace
2. Adhering to a workschedule
3. Complying with supervisor's instructions for achieving tasks
4. Demonstrating professionalism when performing tasks

Competency 3: The student will understand the operations of established film and television companies by:

1. Observing and analyzing the organizational structure of the film company
2. Defining the various contributions of personnel in creating a film production

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Solve problems using critical and creative thinking and scientific reasoning
- Formulate strategies to locate, evaluate, and apply information
- Create strategies that can be used to fulfill personal, civic, and social responsibilities