Miami Dade College

Course Description
FIL4586C | Production Workshop 2 | 4.00 credits
In this upper division workshop for BAS Students in Film, Television & Digital Production students will learn to apply industry-standard post-production techniques to complete Production Workshop 1 projects. Prerequisite: FIL4585C

Course Competencies:
Competency 1: The student will apply post-production picture editing techniques by:
1. Organizing and preparing video materials for editing
2. Utilizing standard color correction, image control and manipulation techniques
3. Preparing various formats for output of the final project
4. Generating original graphics and titles

Competency 2: The student will apply post-production sound designing techniques by:
1. Organizing and preparing audio material for editing
2. Preparing ADR and Foley tracks for editing
3. Editing and refining audio material
4. Incorporating applicable music recordings
5. Creating an industry standard sound mix

Competency 3: The student will apply distribution techniques by:
1. Identifying established distribution methods
2. Preparing a digital press kit for distribution
3. Creating and managing a web site for the project
4. Creating a fully authored project

Learning Outcomes:
- Solve problems using critical and creative thinking and scientific reasoning
- Create strategies that can be used to fulfill personal, civic, and social responsibilities
- Use computer and emerging technologies effectively
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities