

PGY 2800C Digital Photography

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the practice of documentary digital photography. students will learn basic digital camera skills, imaging software, and printing and critiques.

Course Competency	Learning Outcomes
Competency 1: The student will demonstrate an understanding of basic technology as applied to photographic digital processes by:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Utilizing a camera to take images. 2. Utilizing software to manipulate images. 3. Applying learned photographic techniques to improve images.
Competency 2: The student will demonstrate the ability to select and edit photographs in a series by:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Utilizing software to select images. 2. Explaining why certain works were selected. 3. Explaining concepts behind photographs. 4. Discussing work in class critiques.
Competency 3: The student will demonstrate the ability to support proper maintenance procedures for cameras, lenses, and digital darkroom equipment/software by:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Applying maintenance procedures to the camera. 2. Applying maintenance procedures to lenses. 3. Applying maintenance procedures to software and interface hardware.
Competency 4: The student will demonstrate continued development of aesthetic awareness resulting in assembling and presenting a final portfolio by:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Comparing and contrasting a variety of artists to better understand quality photography. 2. Discussing and identifying formal considerations in other images.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 3. Applying knowledge regarding creating a professional portfolio. 4. Applying advanced editing techniques. | |
|---|--|