

Course Description

RTV2243C | Directing | 3.00 credits

An introductory overview of television directing. Students will learn the responsibilities of the television director in coordinating production elements and television control room techniques. Prerequisite: RTV1242C

Course Competencies

Competency 1: The student will recognize and discuss directorial aesthetic choices by:

1. Interpreting a script for camera placement and staging
2. Interpreting a script for lighting and audio needs
3. Reviewing scripts to conform to studio capabilities

Competency 2: The student will demonstrate proficiency in television directing by:

1. Developing a vocabulary for working with various crew positions
2. Supervising crew positions in the studio and control room
3. Directing a production that meets schedule and budget parameters

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Use computer and emerging technologies effectively
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities