

Course Description

RTV2940 | Television Internship | 3.00 credits

In this lower division internship designed for AS students in Television Production, students will learn to apply skills and knowledge learned in the program at an established television entertainment company Prerequisite: RTV1242C

Course Competencies

Competency 1: The student will acquire the skills necessary for a successful job interview by:

1. Preparing an effective and accurate television production resume
2. Applying personal presentation strategies
3. Interviewing for various television production internship positions

Competency 2: The student will follow industry standard protocol in the workplace by:

1. Following television industry-standard protocol in the workplace
2. Adhering to a work schedule
3. Complying with supervisor's instructions for achieving tasks
4. Demonstrating professionalism when performing television production tasks

Competency 3: The student will understand the operations of established film and television companies by:

1. Observing and analyzing the organizational structure of the television company
2. Defining the various contributions of personnel in creating a television production

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Solve problems using critical and creative thinking and scientific reasoning
- Formulate strategies to locate, evaluate, and apply information
- Demonstrate knowledge of diverse cultures, including global and historical perspectives
- Create strategies that can be used to fulfill personal, civic, and social responsibilities
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities