

Course Description

STS1931 | Surgical Technology Special Topics Seminar | 3.00 credits

This course provides a review of all materials covered throughout the five-semester program. Certification examination processes are covered. Employability skills are also covered.

Course Competencies

Competency 1: The student will prepare for the national certification exam by:

1. Identifying strengths and weaknesses as necessary for the national exam
2. Demonstrating study skills necessary for the national certification exam
3. Completing pre-and post-practice national certification exam

Competency 2: The student will prepare and create a resume by:

1. Creating a reference list
2. Creating a cover letter
3. Creating a Thank you letter upon completion

Competency 3: The student will demonstrate interview skills by:

1. Reviewing proper interview attire
2. Explaining job interviewing techniques and procedures
3. Establishing a list of potential interview questions

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Solve problems using critical and creative thinking and scientific reasoning