

Course Description

TPA1200 | Stagecraft | 3.00 credits

A basic study of technical theatre practices with emphasis on scenery construction, rigging and prop construction. This course may be taken concurrently with TPP1110.

Course Competencies:

Competency 1: The student will demonstrate knowledge of the range of theater production methods and responsibilities by:

1. Identifying the terminology
2. Defining the terminology
3. Applying their knowledge of terms to an examination of a production

Competency 2: The student will demonstrate knowledge of a variety of production responsibilities in shows by:

1. Identifying the terminology
2. Defining the terminology
3. Applying their knowledge of terms in hands-on building projects

Competency 3: The student will apply safe work techniques in a stage, studio, or shop environment by:

1. Identifying the safety techniques
2. Defining the safety techniques
3. Applying their knowledge of safety techniques in hands-on building projects

Competency 4: The student will demonstrate teamwork as a member of a production team by:

1. Collaborating on group projects
2. Applying their knowledge in analyzing observed productions

Learning Outcomes:

- Communicate effectively using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills
- Demonstrate an appreciation for aesthetics and creative activities