Idioms

1. Colors

She’s in the pink.
He’s feeling blue.
Don’t be yellow.
I’m in the red.
She’s green with envy.
He was purple with rage.
There’s too much red tape.
He was caught red-handed.
This is a red-letter day.

2. Animals

Don’t make a hog of yourself.
She’s top dog.
He’s a sourpuss.
He’s a rat.
Don’t count your chickens before they hatch.
It sounds fishy.
She’s playing possum.
I’m not a chicken.
She’s a clothes horse.
He’s a wolf in sheep’s clothing.
We’re eating high on the hog.
He’s no spring chicken.
Quit horsing around.
Get off your high horse.
He’s a stool pigeon.
He’s a fat cat.

3. Food

I’m in a stew.
Don’t put all your eggs in one basket.
She’s some tomato.
She’s the salt of the earth.
That’s sour grapes.
She brings home the bacon.
You’re full of baloney.
Everything’s in apple-pie order.
He’s top banana.
I’m in a pickle.
She’s feeling her oats.
It’s a piece of cake.
He can’t cut the mustard.
She’s a peach.
Don’t spill the beans.
They were just chewing the fat.

4. Parts of the Body

Get off my back.
Lend me your ears.
He’s a busybody.
Don’t run off at the mouth.
I’ve got my eye on you.
She has a sharp tongue.
Better shake a leg.
I gave him a tongue lashing.
I have a nose for news.
I can’t stomach him.
He’s a heel.
Lend me a hand.
They’re pulling his leg.
She’s a pain in the neck.
That’s a second hand store.