

Book Fair, the best

Thanks to the community for the 32nd edition Miami Book Fair International.

Thanks to Miami Dade College, the sponsors, but especially to the dedicated work by staff and volunteers, whose extraordinary efforts make the Book Fair great.

Many authors have extolled the Book Fair (in public or to staff and volunteers). Thanks to the Herald for its support of the Fair through articles and publicity.

It is by far the best book fair in North America and — in my opinion and the opinion of many authors — on the planet!

JONATHAN ROSE,
