

Certificate of Professional Preparation

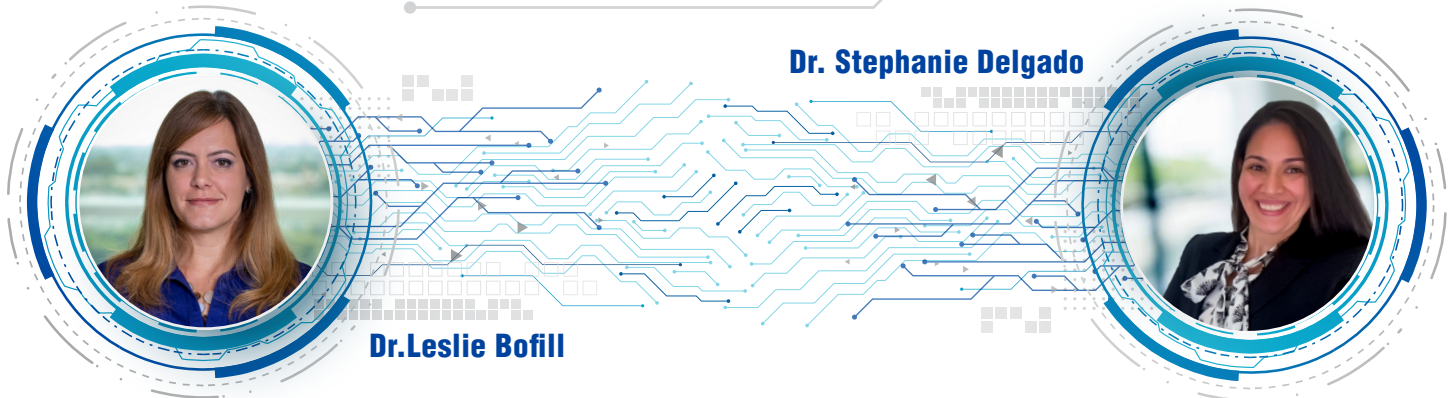

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY

Complete in two semesters

Prepare for a new career in instructional design with a certificate in Instructional Design & Technology. Opportunities are available in K-12, higher education, private industry, government and non-profit settings.

Program At A Glance

- Taught in a blended format
- 5 courses (15 credits)
- Taught by experienced instructional designers

Dr. Leslie Bofill

Dr. Stephanie Delgado

What do instructional designers do?

- Plan and design workshops, seminars, job aids and training manuals for learning and organizational development
- Deliver comprehensive, highly-engaging and interactive training and evaluation strategies
- Promote collaboration, partnerships, and relationships among participants and stakeholders
- Learn project management
- Acquire and apply new technology skills to instructional design projects