Editor-in-Chief: Grace Dopico

Associated Collegiate Press

Awarded in Orlando, Florida, October, 2011

Pacemaker Finalist, 2-year college

Columbia Scholastic Press Association Gold Circle Awards

To be awarded in March at the spring conference in New York City, 2012

These awards reflect entries produced between June 16, 2010 through June 15, 2011.

Because CSPA dates its awards by the year in which they are given, they are known as the 2011 Gold Circle Award. Only one First, Second, or Third place is awarded. Circle Merits (tagged as CM) are awarded to as few as zero and as many as four. This contest does not differentiate between two and four-year colleges, nor between any category of magazine.

Miamibance Volume 22, 2012

General Excellence: Third PlaceFirst Place Awards

Poem: Matthew P. Garcia

Judge's comment: "Truly following in William Blake's footsteps this work sees a world in a grain of sand, only in this case, a match unlike any other." – Lester Goran

Poetry, General: Irene Inatty, Claudia C. Marina, Nicole Nartowicz

Judge's comment: "Inatty's "The Love Tale of a Hyena" pulls these to the top... "Strong Stomach" full of irreverence, the other full of reverence. – Lester Goran

Division B

Daytona, Florida, October 2013

Miamibance Volume 23, 2013

Second Place: General Excellence Award

First Place Awards:

Best Poetry: Angelica Juliano, Andrea Malvezzi, Noelle Ward

Judge’s comment: “Juliano pulls the reader into an inner world in “Fed a Tune”; Malvezzi takes us to a lesser world, but one which has interest in “Not a Night for a Boardwalk”, and Ward (“Knitting”) gives us wisps of thought. Taken as a trio, this is a nice collection. – Judge Lester Goran

Best Art – Individual: Talia Ore “Thirst”

Judge’s comment: “In fine art, we struggle to find pieces which communicate to us what the artist is/was feeling, not just a presentation nor re-creation of what we see... “Thirst” answers that struggle with a work so expressive it is almost painful to view. Through effect and color—deep garnet and tense strokes— Talia has created a piece which allows the viewer to share the desire of the subject... and, like her, leaves the viewer wanting more.”

Best Art Works – General: Xavier A. Herran, “Cosmis Conduit”, Marcelo Mendez, “City”, Talia Ore, “Mom”

Judge’s comment: “Miambiance has depth in style and method that is to be commended. These entries have unique qualities.”

Second Place Fiction: Chantal Gabriel (“Ache”)

Third Place:

Cover: Bryan Aguilar, Roberto Portal, Sebastian Restrepo
